

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF COLONIST VS NATIVE AMERICANS

4.1.CO: COMPARE THE INTERACTIONS AMONG CULTURAL GROUPS AS A RESULT OF EUROPEAN COLONIZATION.

Here's a look at what life may have been like for the European colonists and the Native Americans. As you are exploring, keep in mind, "How Was Life Different Between the Two Groups?"

The first permanent English settlement was established in 1607, in Jamestown, Virginia. However, they were not the only people to be in this area at the time.

The settlers' main goal is to locate the ideal spot for building their fort. \(Click Here to get a closer look at what it may have been like\)

Unfortunately, the spot they picked turned out not to be so ideal for the settlers in the times to come!

What emotions do you believe the settlers experienced during their journey?

Many men did not want to work hard and only came to get rich! What do you think was the most important job they should have done first?

More than half of the original settlers died during the first winter. What do you think were the main causes of their hardships? \(Click Here to Read More\)

Corn was important, which they learned how to grow from a Native American, named Squanto. \(Read More About Him By Clicking Here\)

Tobacco became a cash crop for Virginia and helped the colony to grow rapidly over the next several years.

How do you think your life would have been different during the colonial period?

The Powhatan tribe lived near the Jamestown settlement and helped the colonist in many ways. \(Click here to read more about the tribe!\)

Most of the people in the tribe hunted and fished to not only eat but to use in their everyday items. Their houses were even made out of bark and tree saplings. Children watched the elders of the tribe to learn their roles and how to help out.

Explore the life in Native American tribes versus the world of the Colonists. How do you think their lives were different?

How was the real Pocahontas different from the one you learned about through the Disney movie?

How do you think your life would have been different if you were apart of the Native American Tribe, the Powhatans? \(Click Here to Read More\)